Solari Report Update

The War for Your Mind with Melissa and Aaron Dykes - November 9th

To Justin Boldenow

“A CIA document dated 10 Feb 1954 describes an experiment on the creation of unsuspecting assassins: “Miss [deleted] was then instructed (having expressed a fear of firearms) that she would use every method at her disposal to awaken Miss [deleted] (now in a deep hypnotic sleep) and failing this, she would pick up a pistol and fire it at Miss [deleted]. She was instructed that she would not hesitate to “kill.” Miss [deleted] carried out these suggestions including firing the (unloaded) gun at [deleted]. After proper suggestions were made, both were awakened. Miss [deleted] expressed absolute denial that the foregoing sequence had happened.”

This week on The Solari Report, Melissa and Aaron Dykes of Truthstream Media join me to discuss their ground breaking investigations into the mind control technologies that are increasingly threatening our health, our finances and our lives.

We have posted some of the great videos they have produced on this topic over the last year: How Modern Reality is Being Manufactured, No Other Way To Say It, the Zombie Apocalypse is Here, This Creepy Patent Proves They Can Remotely Hijack Your Nervous System

There is no more important subject than mind control. If invisible forces can control your mind, you have zero chance of success. Indeed, you are no longer a sovereign individual. You are a natural resource or slave to be harvested. Consequently, understanding the war for your mind and protecting the integrity of your mind is essential for success in every aspect of of your life.

Melissa and Aaron are working on an important documentary that will provide a history of mind control technologies. I am a supporter and encourage you to also support them via Patreon. Their efforts represent the very best of what independent media can offer – actionable intel that can literally help you save your mind and the minds of those you love.

In Let’s Go to the Movies, take a look at one of the latest from Melissa and Aaron – Most People Don’t Even Realize What’s Coming.

Last week’s Solari Report on Control 101 is excellent background for my discussion with Melissa and Aaron. It is good to have the big picture before you do a deep dive into mind control. Here is some early feedback:

“The 3rd Quarter Wrap Up: Control 101 was your best to date. Brilliant. I’m so inspired. Thank you, thank you, thank you”

“Your presentation this week I find to be your most poignant and deeply, deeply intelligent on so many levels. My words fail me. As I’ve mentioned in an earlier note, I’ve been following your work since the day the buildings came down and, for me, your lesson this week tops everything else you have done to date in its depth and breadth of scope.”

“My head is spinning from your latest Solari Report. Control 101 and the Entrainment solari are my two favorites ever. Lots to mull over and listen to over and over. Congratulations to you and your team. In these dark times there is a crack that lets the light in. You and Solari are that crack.”

“Wow! this Control 101 is terrific. Your presentation is clear and concise. We have our work cut out for us….You are like an oasis in the vast wasteland. My deepest thanks comes with this.”

In Money & Markets this week I will discuss the latest in financial and geopolitical news. Please e-mail or post your questions for Ask Catherine,

Highlights from Last Week - Control 101 - 3rd Quarter Wrap Up

For many years, independent media commentators have direly predicted events that did not come to pass. The US dollar was about to collapse. The American economy was also about to collapse. Gold was headed to $5,000 per ounce. True, some pundits were simply marketing fear porn. However, many better commentators were sincere.

For the last two decades, I have been a contrarian in the group. I have said that our economy would “slow burn,” that the dollar was dangerous but dominant – not yet at the point of collapse or replacement. Although I agreed that gold was in a long-term bull market, I thought spectacular price increases were unlikely.

When I tried to explain my thinking, I hit a brick wall. My assessment had little to do with classic economics and financial markets. It had to do with my personal experience with the inner workings of our political, economic, and social control systems.
I learned a great deal about control technologies working inside the establishment. Then I added rich insight from 11 years of protracted litigation with the US federal government and three years of additional tax and compliance responsibilities. These years included significant levels of physical harassment, surveillance, smear campaign, and dirty tricks.

Financial professionals would say “I don’t want to go there.” They did not want to discuss the extent to which our current governance system operates by force both domestically and globally. That is, they did not want to discuss control methods such as fake news, smear campaigns, false flags, control files, malicious prosecution and more.

How can we achieve effective use of our time and money unless we “go there” – unless we deal with reality? The truth is that we cannot use time and money effectively unless we do so, which is why we do “go there” in the Solari Report.

My goal for our discussion of Control 101 is to ensure that you have the framework to understand the wide range of methods used to manipulate and control you, in order to immunize you to them. My goal is to help you create ways to free yourself whenever and wherever possible.
