Story #20: Food & Health: Disappearing Disclosure & the AI Invasion

- Culture
- Science & Technology
- Space
- Food & Health

Before closing, we also cover UnAnswered Questions, Inspiration, & Go Local.
Make sure to check out our 2nd Quarter 2018 Wrap Up web presentation. The News Trends & Stories section includes our complete trends list, our choices for top news videos of the quarter, our updated report card for the Trump administration, and our listing of the headlines during the 2nd Quarter that inspired our picks for the top 20 stories. This link to the web presentation is posted in your subscriber links above. If you have not listened to Part I, make sure you do so, particularly story #1: The AI Invasion.

As our discussion is lengthy, we will publish both full-length and chapter-length versions so you can listen selectively if you prefer.

We will publish our 2nd Quarter Equity Overview on July 12, covering equity markets and the Blockbuster Chartology from Rambus for the 2nd Quarter 2018. Our theme: The Rise of the Asian Consumer will appear in the last week of July. The growth of the Asian middle class is a major investment and cultural trend that is impacting us now and will continue to do so for decades to come.

Food For The Soul: Museum POLIN
“Who is this museum for? …For everybody- to give a chance to meet Jewish community that gave the world great thinkers, leaders, scientists, writers, musicians and painters.”
Marian Turski – journalist, historian, Chairman of the Board of POLIN Museum, Vice President of Jewish Historical Institute in Poland, Holocaust survivor

By Your Culture Scout

For obvious reasons, there are hundreds of Jewish holocaust museums and exhibitions all over the world from the famous Simon Wiesenthal Center and Museum of Tolerance in Los Angeles to scores of Shoah exhibitions in Europe and Israel and the memorial centers in all continents. They are about honoring the victims and telling the story of atrocities and an immense suffering. There is however a museum that is not all about the suffering of the Jews but about a celebration of their life and history for a thousand years. Museum POLIN (Museum of History of the Polish Jews) is one of the newest in Europe since it was opened in 2005 and given the European Museum of the Year Award in 2016. The building itself is a very modern glass and stone structure by a Finnish architect company Lahdelma & Mahlamäki and it symbolically stands at the exact location of the pre-war Jewish quarter in Warsaw. The location is therefore not accidental but in general this is a museum that looks much more forward toward a dialogue about the place of Jewish culture in a complex Polish history then the recent traumatic past of the Holocaust. The core exhibition of the museum is the story how and when did the Jewish people arrive in Poland, a land that was to become the center of Jewish diaspora and the place that housed for centuries the largest Jewish community in the world.

Lunch with Catherine and Dr. Mark Skidmore, Sept 22, 2018 in Asheville, NC

"Life starts all over when it gets crisp in the fall." ~ F. Scott Fitzgerald

Solari Report subscribers are invited to join Catherine and Dr. Mark Skidmore on Sept 22, 2018 in Cedric's Garden at the beautiful Biltmore Estate in Asheville, North Carolina.

Dr. Mark Skidmore is a professor in the Department of Economics and holds the Morris Chair in State and Local Government Finance and Policy in the Department of Agricultural, Food, and Resource Economics at Michigan State University. He is also Director of the North Central Regional Center for Rural Development.

Dr. Skidmore was the Solari Hero of the Year for 2017 in recognition for his contribution to understanding the size of and the unanswered questions surrounding the undocumentable adjustments at DOD and HUD.
This will provide a wonderful opportunity for you to meet Dr. Skidmore, Catherine and other Solari Report subscribers in the area.

Allergic to Numismatic Coins

Nothing unreal exists.
~ A Course in Miracles

[CAF Note: I published this comment in September 2017. I am republishing as confusion persists on the desirability of numismatic coins. My opinion? Franklin Sanders is being kind – read on.]

By Catherine Austin Fitts

Franklin Sanders has written an article “What is a Numismatic Coin, What the Law Really Says… and Why You Should Not Buy Them!” He defines the numismatic coin:

“The loosely used, popular definition of a “numismatic” coin is one that collectors will pay a premium for. When used as “numismatic” versus “bullion” coin, people usually mean a collector’s coin versus a coin sold for a small premium over its metal value.
The first is an investment in a coin, never mind its precious metal content; the second is an investment in silver or gold, never mind that it’s a coin.”

If someone is aggressively marketing numismatic coins, at Solari we do not post any of such marketer articles and interviews on the Solari Report.

This Solari choice has a history.
