Catherine Austin Fitts <catherine@solari.com>

Dear Catherine,

This letter is based on research I have pursued since 1996, motivated by the appalling state of humanity. We are inundated by hoaxes. What destructive events forced upon us are not hoaxes? Evidence indicates that we are controlled by something outside of humanity. Significant evidence points to a flesh and blood non-human species that uses humans impaired by psychopathy as collaborators. Money, murder, fear, ignorance, stupidity, and inflated egos, are the levers used to control us.

It is most important to be familiar with Graham Hancock's The Mars Mystery to fully understand the extreme danger facing us. The Whole Lethal Hoax Enchilada, as I like to call it, is as follows:

We are "owned" by another flesh and blood species that possesses a large powerful brain, great mathematical and organizational ability, but little artistic talent or ethical concern for us. By "owned" I mean that we, Homo sapiens, were actually their chattel slaves in the Ice Age Civilization for thousands of years. 12,800 years ago we were set free when comets from the Taurid Stream struck North America and Northern Europe, melting great sections of the two-mile thick ice sheets, causing gigantic floods, mega-fauna extinctions, and the 1,200 year Younger Dryas freeze. Multiple comets from the Taurid Stream will hit Earth again, possibly as early as 2030.

One of our "owners" was Boskop Man, discovered in 1912 in Boskop South Africa. The renowned paleontologist R Broom, studied the Boskop Skull (brain 30% larger than Homo sapiens) soon after it had been discovered, and named him Homo capensis (paper attached to email when possible.).

Other large skulls have been found, and at a site not far from Boskop, Fredrick FritzSimonds excavated an apparent communal living area, and found unequivocal evidence that a large brain non-human Hominid (probably Homo capensis) was dominant over Homo sapiens at that location (CODA Big Brain). I am not talking about Extraterrestrials from outside of the Solar System, but about Cryptoterrestrials who have always been here (Mac Tonnies: The Cryptoterrestrials). Extraterrestrials are a misdirection to confuse us. Doubtlessly there are Extraterrestrials out there, but million or billions of light years distant is not here. Giordano Bruno was likely correct, but he had the distance scale wrong. (Enrico Fermi: The Fermi Paradox)

Neuro-scientists Gary Lynch and Richard Granger (Big Brain) have analyzed the theoretical possibilities of the 30% larger Homo capensis brain, and conservatively assigned the species an estimated average IQ of 149, with 10-15 % at IQ 180 or more. So we are not the smartest animals on the planet, and we may not be the second smartest, or even the third, as there were/are cone head species with even bigger brains. The Big Brain Hominids are candidates for the Ice Age Earth Mappers (Charles Hapgood: Maps of the Ancient Sea Kings). They understand our minds better than we do, and are ultra-masters at exploiting our weaknesses. We are bamboozled.

The history of our association With the Large Brain Hominids is obscure, as the establishment hides this information. There exists significant information unexcavated in South Africa (See coffee table books by Heine, and Tellingner).

It is very important to distinguish between the concepts of Big Brain Humans and Big Brain non-human species. As members of the species Homo sapiens, we all share essentially the same brain architecture, brain connections, and emotional patters. We know empathy, kindness, and love; we build families based on these emotions. We cannot assume that a non-human species with a powerful brain will behave as we do. Why is love under attack? Why is the family under such vicious attacks? Why are so many of our leaders impaired by psychopathy?

To jump ahead to where we are now, one must be familiar with Graham Hancock's 1998 book The Mars Mystery, and have given some thought to UFO technology and the strange alien abduction scenarios. It all fits together but requires determination, work, and a willingness to swim against the current.

Briefly, Mars was devastated (killed) by multiple comets hits that blew off into space the oceans, atmosphere, along with part of the northern hemisphere mantle. This may have happened less than 20,000 years ago. The comets were from the Earth orbit crossing Taurid Stream, and Earth may meet this swarm as early as 2030. Astronomers Bill Napier, Victor Clube, Chandra Wickramasinghe, and Fred Hoyle, have written about this extreme danger, but are ignored.

As you know very well, vast money (hundreds of trillions) has been sucked up by something. Much of this money has gone to what has been called the Secret Space Program, controlled by the so-called Parallel Civilization, or Breakaway Civilization. They have build a huge fleet of enormous gravity controlling space ships (dimensions in kilometers) which have reached Mars and beyond for the purpose of inventorying comets and asteroids that pose a danger to Earth, and to modify their orbits or break them up with the technology used to “dustify” the Twin Towers. We, humanity, seem to be an unknowing important part of this venture, which in importance far exceeds our squabbling and travails. We are the Bamboozled intellectual and construction grunts. There is much evidence, but it is circumstantial, anecdotal, and analogical, rather than direct evidence.

A key entity is the Pharaoh Akhenaten who was also Moses (see Ahmed Osman). Judging from Egyptian sculpture, Akhenaten was a Big Brain species, He is usually depicted wearing high headgear, but there is no question that his daughters had very large bald heads (The Royal Women of Amarna-Metropolitan Museum of Art). Of great significance is the fact that Akhenaten, by use of the concept of monotheism, greatly disrupted Egypt.

But why haven't they let us in on defending against this threat to Earth? I suspect there are two factions or more among our owners, and one of them wants to have us knowingly cooperate. (Maybe our “friends” are collaborating humans). I see a real problem in that the cone head owners probably eat us. The Big Cone Heads have orbits 20% larger, powerful jaws with big incisors and canines, few or no molars, one parietal plate rather than the Homo sapiens two, and two high occipital foramina (Brien Foerster). They seem to have the dentition of obligate carnivores. They certainly use psychopaths to control us and want us to have damaged brains. Why? Perhaps the Big Brains by their nature are incapable of being our friends.

The late Ted Gunderson, former Los Angeles FBI Chief, spoke repeatedly about 700,000 missing children every year. This was several years ago.

Cydonia on Mars - https://nssdc.gsfc.nasa.gov/planetary/mgs_cydonia.html

NASA has been coy about images of the Face on Mars, The City, and the D&P Pyramid, acquired by the Viking 1 Orbiter in 1976. The objects are very large and of a size to be noticed on the received images. Researchers outside of Coy NASA have very thoroughly analyzed these images, including searching for sacred numbers and mathematical relationships which they found. There are very strong arguments that these are artifacts, and not natural geological formations.

Who built these artifacts and when? Were they Extraterrestrials leaving a sign for Earthlings? Is this a hoax? I strongly recommend reading Graham Hancock: The Mars Mystery.

I think it's a hoax for the following reasons:

Almost everything is a hoax and I will give the following few examples:

The sinking of the Titanic, actually the Olympic, which killed Astor, Guggenheim and Strauss, who opposed the Federal Reserve.

The Federal Reserve

WWI and the Belgian Relief Fund

WWII- The War set the stage for the Deep State and the Alphabets. A major purpose was to destroy Germany and bring the USSR into Western Europe
Adolph Hitler- who succeeded in losing the War, destroying Germany, and bringing half of Europe under communist rule

The Korean War

The JFK Assassination

The Vietnam War

9/11- Hoax of Boeings just disappearing into Towers

Dustification of the Twin Towers (Judy Woods)

And dare I say it? COVID 19

The prize is control of Planet Earth, and this works for them if Homo sapiens is stuffed into the Georgia Guidestones parameters. We know physics has been set back more than one hundred years, and that gravity-controlling space ships exist, almost certainly built on Earth until they reached such a great size that they are assembled on the Moon and Mars.

I think the artifacts on Mars, the Face, The City, The D&M Pyramid, were constructed between 1945 and 1976 by humans, and were built on a scale that would make them obvious in images from the Viking 1 Orbiter (64 pixels for The Face). How they were constructed I don't know, but an underlying steel framework seems plausible.

Coy NASA's response to legitimate questions about the possible artifacts of Cydonia is evasive, deceptive, involving a lot of churning just like all the other hoaxes. We are bamboozled. Read Graham Hancock's The Mars Mystery.

With Best Wishes

The two Coffee Table books below are listed because of the beautiful photographs of what I believe may be the Crucible of Humanity.

Adams Calendar, Discovering the oldest Man made Structure on Earth. Johan Heine & Michael Tellinger. They gave 75,000 years, I think 160,000 years more likely.
